

“I am running for City Council to serve the City of Orange residents and give East Orange neighborhoods a voice.”

I bring broad leadership and governance experience, city planning expertise and a common-sense approach to City Hall. I seek to renew my service to Orange, my home for 36 years. We must repair the broken status quo and restore a positive relationship between the residents and City Hall.

My priorities are to:

- Make public safety paramount
- Address the issues surrounding homelessness
- Protect taxpayers, reduce waste, support business, and be fiscally responsible
- Ensure transparency, public accountability, and fairness
- Expand open space
- Restore proper planning and respect for community plans
- Foster a culture that values community input and inclusion
- Establish a code of conduct for city leaders towards residents

I ask for your vote on November 8th.
